PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

T. Wayne Williams

Welcome to the 2014-2015 year for the Norfolk & Portsmouth Bar Association. Like many past presidents, I will take the opportunity in my first message to introduce myself to those of you who do not know me well or who I have not had the pleasure of meeting. I am married to my high school sweetheart and have two young daughters, all of whom are the joys of my life. I currently have no pets but according to my oldest daughter we are "expecting" (a dog). I have lived in Hampton Roads for the past 17 years and now call it home, but am a proud native of the Eastern Shore of Virginia and grew up in the town of Onancock on the Chesapeake Bay. With the election of my friend and fellow Onancock native, Ralph Northam, as Lieutenant Governor of Virginia this past year, the Shore has its highest ranking state official since Governor Henry Wise was elected in 1855. I mention that fact as I am a lover of history, having majored in it for my undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia. I received my law degree from Regent University and am pleased with the increasing achievements of my fellow graduates in the area in recent years. Because of my Shore roots, I have a great love for boating and fishing on the Chesapeake Bay whenever I have the time and enjoy watching just about any live sporting event.

I have worked in Hampton Roads for my entire career and practice in the area of civil litigation. Along with my law partner, we started our practice, Williams Deloatche, P.C. almost six years ago. As many of you know, running a small practice is challenging, but rewarding, and I am proud of the successes we have achieved to date.

I have been involved with the Norfolk & Portsmouth Bar Association almost since the day I began practicing law. My involvement with the NPBA through the years has been a very enriching experience for me because of you, the members. Through serving on committees, attending events and luncheons and getting involved in community projects I have had the great pleasure of working with and getting to know many of you. I have been inspired by the talents you possess as lawyers and the ways you fully support important causes and your community.

The practice of law requires us to vigorously represent our clients and can sometimes lead to contentiousness when in the heat of argument. However, our bar association allows us the opportunity to talk outside of work and learn more about each other so that we have more courtesy and respect for each other when working. For that reason, I believe that we have a very civil bar which helps us to better serve our clients. In addition to contact with our colleagues, our organization also provides unique opportunities to get to meet and learn a little more about the judges when they are away from the bench. I have also enjoyed that experience and am very thankful for the support the judiciary provides to our organization. The encounters I have made within the organization have made me a better person, a better leader and a better lawyer.

In conclusion, I am honored to serve as the 2014-2015 President of the Norfolk & Portsmouth Bar Association. I am also humbled by the opportunity to follow in the footsteps of the men and women who have served in this position. Those individuals are role models to me and I will do my best to live up to their high standards. I would like to personally thank Virginia Van Valkenburg for her service the past year and I look forward to having her wisdom to lean on over the course of the upcoming year. I encourage all of you involved to stay involved with the NPBA and for those who have not been able to, or are new lawyers, join us, you will be inspired.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cooper Hurley welcomes Bill O'Mara as a member of the litigation team at the firm, which exclusively practices personal injury law. Since 2008, Bill has practiced personal injury and other litigation in Hampton Roads. He was raised in Chesapeake before attending Dartmouth College, later receiving a J.D. from Washington & Lee University.

W. Ryan Snow has been appointed Chair of the Construction and Public Contracts Section of the Virginia Bar Association. The Section consists of nearly 200 lawyers who work to monitor, initiate and promote legislation that affects the construction industry and public contracting. Mr. Snow has been a member of the Section Council for several years, serving as an officer for three. He has moderated seminars for the VBA on legislative updates and intellectual property issues in construction law. Mr. Snow is managing partner of Crenshaw, Ware & Martin, P.L.C. and chairs the firm's Business Disputes and Construction Law Practice Groups.

Hampton Roads Association of Legal Administrators Chapter which was chartered in September 1979 and today has about 40 active members representing law firms, corporate legal departments and government agencies throughout the Tidewater region of Virginia announces the new officers for the year. President, Valerie Williams of Pender & Coward; President-Elect, Amy Glenn of Wolcott Rivers Gates; Vice President, Lisa Daniel of Zoby, Broccoletti & Normile, P.C.; Treasurer, Sabrina Daly of Boleman Law Firm, P.C.; Secretary, Erin Hulme of Rack & Olansen, P.C. and Past President, Shirley Beaucham of Crenshaw, Ware & Martin, P.L.C.

Kaufman & Canoles, P.C. is pleased to announce that Stephen E. Story was selected by his peers and clients as a "2014 Legal Eagle," one of the nation's "Top Lawyers in Franchising," by Franchise Times magazine. Mr. Story was the only attorney in Hampton Roads to be selected for this prestigious honor in the national publication. Mr. Story is the Chairman of the firm's Franchise Practice Group and regularly represents franchisors and franchisees in all aspects of franchise law.

Pender & Coward shareholder Richard E. Garriott, Jr. has been inducted as a Fellow of the Virginia Law Foundation. Also a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, he specializes in family law, domestic relations and litigation.

Poole Mahoney PC is pleased to announce Nicole Thurston has joined the Divorce/Family Law practice group in Virginia Beach. Ms. Thurston has experience in divorce, support, custody, and equitable distribution. She is a certified guardian ad litem for children and is fluent in Spanish. Ms. Thurston earned a bachelor's degree from Virginia Wesleyan College and a J.D. from Regent University.

Michael L. Goodove, partner in the firm of Swartz, Taliaferro, Swartz & Goodove, P.C., was recognized as a Virginia Super Lawyer in personal injury law. Franklin Swartz, also a partner in the firm, was recognized as a Virginia Super Lawyer in criminal law. Mr. Goodove specializes in personal injury law and Mr. Swartz specializes in criminal law with an emphasis in white collar crime.

Vandeventer Black is pleased to announce that William E. Franczek, P.E., a partner in the Construction and Public Contracts Department, was recently selected by the American Bar Association Forum on the Construction Industry to chair its newly formed division on Government Construction. The Forum provides a national venue for educational programs and publications focused on the construction industry. It is the largest organization of construction lawyers in the United States, serving 6,000 members and associates. The Government Construction Division is one of 13 Divisions and was formed to provide a forum for the study and discussion of legal issues inherent in federal, state and local construction contracting. Bill is also a civil engineer and his practice focuses on construction law, public contract law, and alternative dispute resolution. His extensive background in the construction field includes claim preparation, negotiation, and litigation/arbitration on behalf of construction industry clients. His experience includes privately-owned projects; federal, state and local public projects, and hybrid developments such as public private partnership projects. Bill also serves in leadership roles in many construction trade associations, including the Associated General Contractors, Hampton Roads Builders and Contractors Exchange, and the Design Build Institute of America.

The Virginia Bar Association has elected the following lawyers from Hampton Roads to its board: Elaina L. Blanks, a tax attorney with Norfolk Southern Corp., is chair of the Young Lawyers Division and a voting member of the VBA's executive board and on the board of governors. William A. Galanko, vice president-law at Norfolk Southern Corp., is the Tidewater Region representative on the board of governors. Donald C. Schultz, partner at Crenshaw, Ware & Martin, PLC, continues to serve on the board.

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities has announced recipients of their 2014 Humanitarian Awards which celebrate individuals and organizations for making significant humanitarian contributions to the South Hampton Roads community. Honorees include: Charles M. McPhillips, Kaufman & Canoles, P.C.: McPhillips serves on the boards of the Norfolk Arts and Humanities Commission, the Hampton Roads Economic Development Alliance and the Greater Norfolk Corporation. He is chairman of the McMahon Parater Foundation, a statewide organization that supports Catholic schools throughout Virginia. As chairman of the James Barry Robinson Center, he and the board sponsored the creation of St. Patrick's Catholic School, which was created as an institution open to persons of all faiths. Michael A. Glasser, Glasser & Glasser, P.L.C.: Glasser is a past president of the Virginia State Bar and has served as a member of the bar's committee on women and minorities. He is an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association and a substitute judge for the Norfolk General District Court. His presence is felt throughout the region through his work with the United Jewish Federation of Tidewater, Greater Norfolk Corporation and the Children's Health Foundation.

YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION

By Cart Rixey Reilly, Chair

Cart Rixey Reilly

I am delighted to serve as the 2014-2015 NPBA YLS Chair and I look forward to the many exciting opportunities that the YLS has in store for the upcoming year! The 2014-2015 YLS calendar is already filling up with a number of opportunities for young lawyers to become more involved with the NPBA and our community. I am excited to report that the Annual Golf Tournament will be held at Bide-A-Wee Golf Course on Thursday, June 19, 2014. Please see below for more details. By all accounts, this year's Golf Tournament is shaping up to be another excellent event, so please mark your calendars and plan to join us for what will surely be a wonderful day of golf, camaraderie, and lots of fun.

In other YLS news, the YLS and other NPBA members met on Tuesday, April 8, 2014 for another successful Breakfast with the Bench event. We thoroughly enjoyed hearing from Norfolk General District Court Judge Joan E. Mahoney about practice in the General District Court and the practice of law in general. Thank you, Judge Mahoney, for sharing your time, advice, and excellent practice pointers with us.

We also enjoyed supporting and "coaching" a team in the Norfolk Public School Middle School Mock Trial program. I would like to thank Tim Boykin, Zach Simmons and Michelle Mathis for leading the YLS team at Norview Middle School. Our students did a fantastic job at "trial" and had a great time participating in the program!

The YLS is hosting a spring happy hour at Luna Maya on Thursday, May 22, 2014, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. This event is open to the entire NPBA and provides a great opportunity to see friends and colleagues, so please join us on May 22 for appetizers and drink specials.

Finally, I would like to thank my predecessor, Courtney Williams, for her service and efforts in continuing to grow the YLS. I am also grateful to the YLS committee members for their contributions to the NPBA and the community at large. I welcome and encourage anyone interested in joining the YLS committee to please contact me at creilly@wolriv.com. Stay tuned for other exciting YLS opportunities and we look forward to seeing you at upcoming events!

Dispute Resolution Services

Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") has proven to be an effective and cost efficient substitute to resolve business, technical, and other types of disputes. Vandeventer Black's Dispute Resolution Service attorneys serve as mediators, arbitrators, partnering facilitators, and neutrals in a variety of business and technical disputes. William E. Franczek and Michael L. Sterling serve on the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") and other ADR organization panels of neutrals. They have facilitated the resolution of disputes regarding complex construction projects, business dissolutions, qui tam actions, corporate and commercial issues and real estate matters.

In addition to acting as neutrals in disputes, our attorneys have extensive experience representing our clients in mediation, arbitration, dispute resolution boards, early neutral evaluations, mini-trials, and other forms of litigation alternatives. Please contact Bill or Mike at bfranczek@vanblk.com and msterling@vanblk.com for additional information.

MOCK TRIAL PROGRAM 2014

For the ninth year, eighteen members of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Bar Association taught basic trial skills to students from the Norfolk Public School system. The mock trial program initially began with two schools and has now grown to up to eight schools in some years.

For this year, five schools and approximately seventy-five students participated. The five Norfolk middle schools that participated were Azalea Garden, Blair, Northside, Norview and Rosemont. The program began in mid-February and students met weekly until mid-April with the volunteer lawyers who taught lessons on opening statement, direct examination, cross examination and closing statement. The students were assigned roles as attorneys and witnesses for the mock trial case which this year was a civil matter, Kennedy Jones v. Sandy Beach School Board. The case involved an injury sustained by a student during the production and presentation of a model volcano and whether the teacher/school board was negligent and if the student was barred from recovery due to his/her contributory negligence.

Thanks to the support of the Norfolk Circuit Court and five additional NPBA members who acted as judges, the program concluded with mock trials in five separate courtrooms on April 10, 2014 pitting the plaintiff team from one school against the defendant team from another. Each of the participating students received medals for their efforts and as a memento of the program.

The mock trial program is held annually from February to April and is run through the Public Relations committee of the NPBA. This year's program was coordinated by Wayne Williams who wishes to thank all the great attorney volunteer teachers, Sandy Claxton of the Norfolk Circuit Court and the five presiding judges who all made the program possible and successful again this year.
